

Vistra Corp. Trade Groups and Memberships

As an integrated energy company, Vistra operates an innovative, customer-centric retail business and a generation fleet focused on safely, reliably, and efficiently generating power in the communities we serve. Vistra is not a political entity, but we live in a world influenced by politics and participating in the political process is imperative to the ongoing success of the Company.

As such, Vistra is a member of and participates in trade groups, associations, and other third-party organizations that may take positions on policy matters and may engage in lobbying activities on behalf of the members and constituents. The below list includes membership organizations and trade associations: (1) to which Vistra paid $50,000 or greater in membership dues in 2022; and (2) may have engaged in lobbying activities in 2022:

Annually Vistra reviews all its memberships with trade groups, associations, and other third-party organizations to discern whether their positions are materially inconsistent with Vistra's views. If Vistra determines that a group is taking a materially inconsistent position from the Company's views, the Company will advocate within the organization to seek to align our positions and if that is unsuccessful may withdraw from or otherwise disassociate from that organization. Vistra will publish a voluntary report of its memberships and dues of $50,000 or ¹ Vistra provides the portion of its membership dues or payments made that are non-deductible under IRS §162(e)(1)(B) at time of reporting. If that information is unknown at time of reporting, then Vistra will update this report as that information is provided by its trade groups, associations, and other third-party organizations.
